- I understand that the items I have left will be sold by Salvation Army Trading Company Ltd on my behalf as my agent. The Goods remain my property until they are sold.
- I confirm the donated goods belong to me and that I am not acting as a business. If HMRC deems I am acting as a business I accept I am potentially liable to income tax and VAT on any proceeds from the sale of the goods even if the proceeds are donated to the charity.
- I understand that any unsold goods can be disposed of by Salvation Army Trading Company Ltd at their discretion.
- I understand that I will only be contacted when the net sales value of goods is greater than £1000 in any tax year and for the End of Year Tax Letter.
- I understand that if I am contacted that I will be offered the value of the sale over £1000 less a commission charge of 2.5% of the sale plus VAT.
- I understand that any trader that asks a charity to sell trading goods on their behalf will need to include the full proceeds in their receipts and any commission charged as expenses in their accounts when calculating their taxable profits and when a charity is selling valuable goods on their behalf, any Capital Gains Tax liability will remain the traders own responsibility.
- This Agency Agreement is a legally binding contract between the donor of the goods and the charity, as agent, in the sale of the goods
